

Flutter Developer – Initial Three Month Contract

Location – Remote (and/or City Centre, Norwich subject to COVID restrictions)

Type – Temporary

Working Hours – 40 hours per week, Monday - Friday

Salary – Negotiable

Start – ASAP

Are you an experienced Flutter developer looking to work on challenging and rewarding mobile apps? fluffyegg are a forward-thinking agency offering mobile app development, web design/development and maintenance. We do serious work but don't take ourselves too seriously. We are a friendly, close-knit team servicing small start-ups to multimillion pound companies. The work is diverse and rewarding. The successful candidate will be comfortable working as part of a small team and playing an active role in scoping and developing mobile apps.

Your role will be to bring mobile app visuals to life and to offer critical feedback and ideas to the designers. You must have an excellent understanding of Flutter.

Although this is an initial three month contract, we are considering making this a permanent position.

What's our working environment like?

Company culture is very important to us. We expect everyone to be friendly, respectful and courteous. We recognise how important it is that everyone is able to flex their creative and development muscles and encourage discussion and participation at all stages of the project lifecycle. You will not be micromanaged but you will be expected to meet targets that are mutually agreed. We want work to be fun and we want you to feel you're working at your very best and are proud of the work you are doing.

Skills

- Excellent knowledge of Flutter and working with REST APIs essential
- Working knowledge of PHP preferable, but not essential
- Keen eye for bringing design concepts to life
- Stickler for beautiful code and thirst for self-development
- Able to meet deadlines and manage your own workload
- Excellent problem-solving skills

Applications will close when the right candidate has been found. Please send your CV, portfolio and salary expectation to careers@fluffyegg.com. No recruitment agencies please.

Please note that due to a high volume of candidates, we will only reply to those successful in their application.
